Keynote speaker: Brian Maryott, 2020
Republican Candidate for U.S. Congress,
California 49th District

There are less than 168 days left until the November 3, 2020 Presidential Election.

The Corona-virus Pandemic has changed the way candidates had previously campaigned. No more rallies or Meet and Greets. Talking to voters face to face has been prohibited. Our candidates, Brian Maryott, for Congressional District 49 and Melanie Burkholder, for California Assembly, District 76 have used available technology for virtual Town Halls and meetings to the best of their ability. Now that the County Supervisors have pressured Gov. Newsome to relax restrictions and let many more businesses reopen, we hope small gatherings will also be allowed soon. Until then, it is imperative to build a strong conservative network of registered voters. There has been a delay in receiving the most recent list of registered voters from the County Voter Registrar. We will let you know as soon as it is available. With Gov. Newsome's order that all registered voters in California will receive a mail-in ballot, we know that the Democrats are ready to harvest ballots and make sure that every mail-in ballot sent to the deceased or moved voters will be voted and delivered to the polls. For example, over two years ago, Los Angeles was ordered by a successful law suit to purge their voter registration list of ineligible voters and it still has not happened! Once again, I implore you to make friends of the Registered Republicans in your neighborhood. Start with our membership list and expand to the precinct list when it is ready.

After you build this core team, you should reach out to the Declined to State (DTS) and the No Political Party (NPP) to recruit the conservatives. This is a huge endeavor. However, it can be down. The alternative is a government that wants to change the fundamentals of The United States of America. This is the most important election in our lifetimes.

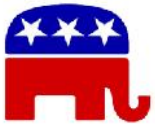

God Bless America!

Brian is a conservative businessman, former mayor, and a father who is running for Congress to restore common-sense representation to the 49th Congressional district. As a local elected official and former executive, Brian has proven he can work with anyone who has good ideas – he will bring that exact same approach to Congress.

Brian is a Certified Financial Planner – he spent the majority of his career helping hundreds of individuals and families save for a rainy day, send their kids to college, retire with dignity and invest in their future. He steadily grew his planning business and was eventually promoted to Senior Vice President of his company where he helped manage hundreds of employees and billions in client assets. As our national debt continues to grow, Brian's financial background and commitment to sound growth and fiscal stewardship is needed in Congress now more than ever.

At an early age Brian learned about hard work and responsibility. He shoveled dog waste as a kennel attendant at 15, worked as a dishwasher and busboy in a restaurant chain – became a cook, server and ultimately an assistant manager while he worked full time to pay his way through college. He even did a stint on an overnight janitorial crew to keep his student loans to a manageable level.

Brian and his wife Michele have been living their version of the American Dream in southern California for over 25 years. They live in San Juan Capistrano where Brian serves as Mayor and they raise three wonderful children.
