SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

Where were you and what were you doing at 8:45 a.m. on September 11, 2001? Twenty years later the American people saw many memorials and tributes to those who did not survive the tragedy. In the past few days, we have read accounts and heard the thoughts of the survivors as they share their memories.

On September 11, 2001, 19 militants associated with the Islamic extremist group al-Qaeda hijacked four airplanes and carried out suicide attacks against targets in the United States. Almost 3,000 people were killed during the 9/11 terrorist attacks, which triggered major U.S. initiatives to combat terrorism and defined the presidency of George W. Bush.

At 8:45 a.m. on a clear Tuesday morning, an American Airlines Boeing 767 loaded with 20,000 gallons of jet fuel crashed into the north tower of the World Trade Center.

As the evacuation of the tower and its twin got underway, television cameras broadcasted live images of what initially appeared to be a freak accident. Then, 18 minutes after the first plane hit, a second appeared out of the sky and sliced into the south tower. The U.S. was under attack.

As millions watched the events unfolding in New York, American Airlines Flight 77 circled over downtown Washington, DC before crashing into the west side of the Pentagon military headquarters at 9:45 a.m. Jet fuel from the Boeing 757 caused a devastating inferno that led to the structural collapse of a portion of the giant concrete building, headquarters of the Department of Defense.

A fourth California-bound plane was hijacked about 40 minutes after leaving an airport in New Jersey. Because the plane had been delayed, passengers on board learned of events in New York and Washington via cell phone and airfone calls to the ground. Knowing that the aircraft was not returning to an airport as the hijackers claimed, a group of passengers and flight attendants planned an insurrection.

They fought the four hijackers and are suspected to have attached the cockpit with a fire extinguisher. The plane then flipped and sped toward the ground at upwards of 500 miles per hour crashing in a rural field killing 44 passengers.

Some of the terrorists had lived in the U.S. for more than a year and had taken flying lessons at American commercial flight schools. Others had slipped into the country in the months prior to September 11.

The question we face today is: “Could this happen again?”

Some say, it isn’t a matter of ‘if’ but rather ‘when’.

QUOTES

“Ours was the first revolution in the history of mankind that truly reversed the course of government, and with three little words: ‘We the people.’”

President Ronald Reagan

“The federal government has taken too much tax money from the people, too much authority from the states, and too much liberty with the Constitution.”

President Ronald Reagan

“The legitimate object of government is to do for a community of people whatever they need to have done, but cannot do at all, or cannot so well do, for themselves, in their separate and individual capacities.”

President Abraham Lincoln

“To educate a person in mind and not in morals is to educate a menace to society.

President Theodore Roosevelt

“The essential notion of a capitalist society...is voluntary cooperation, voluntary exchange. The essential notion of a socialist society is force.”

Milton Friedman

“A nation that forgets its past has no future.”

Winston Churchill

“The problems we face today are there because the people who work for a living are now outnumbered by those who vote for a living.”

Anonymous

TRIVIA

America is a country which produces citizens who will cross the ocean to fight for democracy but won't cross the street to vote.

I find it ironic that the colors red, white and blue stand for freedom until they are flashing behind you.

Did you know that two to three glasses of wine per day can reduce your risk of giving a damn?

Toothache: The pain that drives you to extraction.

Why do banks charge a fee due to insufficient funds when they already know you're broke?

A blond guy shouts frantically into the phone, “My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart!” “Is this her first child?” asks the Doctor. “No!” he shouts, “this is her husband!”

What do you call a dinosaur with an extensive vocabulary? Thesaurus.

Velcro. What a rip off!
